His first name is never revealed during the interview although he does mention that he lived in Wilton during WWI and he apparently was living in York at the time of the interview in 1986. Abstract by Cynthia Young-Gomes 01/30/2014 (This does not contain exact wording to be used as quotes EXCEPT where denoted by quotation marks): I am 80 years old. I will be 81 years old in December (this was done on October 5, 1986, so he would have born in 1905). I was 8 at the beginning of WWI. I remember how peaceful it was (before the war) The US had little standing army. Had sent some of the home guard down to Mexico to meet Pancho (Francisco "Pancho" Villa). Then joined in 1917 in England. Most troops were very green .
